Garmin's GTN Series Available at NexAir

You've seen all the news on the Garmin website, Facebook, Twitter and every blog known to the general aviation world—but is it as cool, easy to use, and useful as all the hype? Yes. Yes, it is.

Whether you consider yourself tech-savvy or not doesn't matter. The Garmin GTN 650 and GTN 750 are simply that intuitive.

Of course every new gadget is a big unknown, until you use it (frankly, that's half the fun of Sun-n-Fun and AirVenture), right?

Visit NexAir Avionics Wednesday, May 4th.

We'll have our local Garmin Representative over to answer questions and our newest demo aircraft will be outfitted with both the GTN 650 and the GTN 750. Come check-it out for yourself.
